Social Justice Commission Seeks new Members

The Social Justice Commission of SEAS St. Elizabeth Ann Seton) and OLOTH (Our Lady of the Hills) welcomes new members. The purpose of the Social Justice Commission is to integrate social justice ministry into the life of our parish: to raise awareness of pressing issues of social concern; to provide opportunities for education on current issues in Catholic social ministry; and to support and actively engage in peace and justice concerns reflecting Catholic Social Teaching through loving service and through legislative and social policy support both locally and beyond. Currently the Social Justice Commission is focusing on the following topics: anti-racism, prison ministry, welcoming the LGBTQ community. Our next meeting is on Thursday, September 16th at 6:30pm, at Our Lady of the Hills Rectory. If you are interested in joining, please contact John Yount at jnbyount@gmail.com or 413-587-9869.

WEEKLY COLLECTION

Prison Ministry is a unique opportunity to grow with Christ. Hamden County Jail and Correctional Facility in Ludlow, Mass has a reputable and well established program called REC equals Residents Encounter Christ which is supervised by Deacon Bill Toller. This program brings the hope of new life in Christ to incarcerated men and women. Deacon Bill is always welcoming adult volunteers to learn more about this outreach. He can be contacted for current details at 413-478-5201. Please leave a voicemail, and he will reliably call you back.

HELPER NEEDED

God is a good worker; but loves to be helped.
—Basque proverb

LOVE THEM BOTH

We must love them both—those whose opinions we share and those whose opinions we reject. For both have labored in the search for truth, and both have helped us in the finding of it.
—Thomas Aquinas
